

MARCHING THROUGH GERMANY

Words by

Loftus E. Price, Jr.

Music by

George Lowell Tracy

Price 35 Cents

Published by

LOFTUS E. PRICE, Jr.
BOSTON, MASS.

MARCHING THROUGH GERMANY

Words by LOFTUS E. PRICE JR.

Music by
GEORGE LOWELL TRACY

Marcia Con Spirito

VOICE

PIANO

1. We are on our way to France, Ev - 'ry boy will have a chance, To fight for peace and de -
 2. We are go - ing there for fair, And al - so by air, Just to fight for world de - moe - ra - ey. We will jump from trench to trench And through barbed wire fence Un - til we moe - ra - ey, We will teach this Ger - man bunch, That we're the ones that have the punch, When we go land in old Ger - ma - ny. It is not for blood we go, Nor to march - ing through Ger - ma - ny. When ev - 'ry-thing is done There'll not con-quer land or foe, But to fight for world de - moe - ra-cy. We will be a sin-^{gle} Hun, Who would not fight for world de - moe - ra-cy. And the tell them ov-er there, that Un - cle Sam is on the square, When we go march - ing through Germa-ny.

 Yan-kee doo - doo, will fly the old Red White and Blue, When we come march-ing home from Ger-ma-ny.

CHORUS Marcia marcato

March-ing through Ger - ma - ny, March-ing through Ger - ma - ny, We will go to Ber - lin Square,

We will call for the Kai - ser there, Then peace will bless the earth, And the world will have new birth,

When we come marching home from Ger - ma - ny! Ger - ma - ny!

A. 1. A. 2.

